

Connect to Repository window

The Connect to Repository window allows you to connect to a different installation of the IDERA SQL Compliance Manager Repository. You can type the name of the SQL Server instance that hosts the Repository databases or browse for the instance. If the target SQL Server instance is not listed, verify that the instance is available.

Specify the appropriate SQL Server instance, and then click OK.

