

Change general properties

The General tab of IDERA SQL Secure contains basic information about your audited SQL Server, including the instance name, the SQL Server version, snapshot information, and security and auditing information.

Property Group	Description
Name, Version, and Operating System	Contains the name of the computer hosting the SQL Server instance belongs to, the SQL Server instance name, version number, edition, if replication is enabled or not, and if sa Account Password is empty or not.
Operating System	Contains the basic information of the operating system: server name, Windows OS, and if Server is Domain Controller
Snapshot	Contains basic snapshot information including the time and date of the current snapshot, the snapshot status, and when the last successful snapshot was taken.

SQL Secure tells you who has access to what on your SQL Server databases. Learn more > >

IDERA Website	Products	Purchase	Support	Community	About Us	Resources	Legal
-------------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------	-------------------------	---------------------------	--------------------------	---------------------------	-----------------------