

Required accounts and permissions

The IDERA Dashboard and SQL BI Manager connect to registered SQL Server instances and their host computers to collect information. The collection service requires permission to connect and gather information using SQL and WMI connection credentials.

The IDERA Dashboard and SQL BI Manager requires the assignment of the following permissions for the accounts listed:

Account	Action	Permissions required