Types of job steps

When you define steps for a job, you have to determine the type of step. SQL Enterprise Job Manager handles the following types of steps:

- Executable programs and operating systems commands.
- Transact-SQL statements, including stored procedures and extended stored procedures.
- · Powershell scripts.
- Replication tasks:
 - Replication DistributorReplication Merge

 - o Replication Queue Reader

 - Replication Snapshot
 Replication Transaction-Log Reader.

For more information about these job steps types, click here.

IDERA | Products | Purchase | Support | Community | Resources | About Us | Legal