Report on alerts

You can use Report Cards to identify compliance problems, or track alert activity over a time period up to 30 days. When you identify spikes in alert activity, or potential issues, you can generate reports to view in-depth information on the associated alerts. This feature allows you to gather forensic information or demonstrate policy enforcement. For more information, see Report on Audit Data.

IDERA | Products | Purchase | Support | Community | Resources | About Us | Legal