

Console Preferences window - Alert Views window

The Alert Views window allows you to define the number of alerts that display per view page. Specify the appropriate value, and then click OK.

Available actions

Restore Defaults

Allows you to restore the console settings to the default values.

