Additional tuning commands

In addition to tuning, the interface provides additional commands and functionality that enables you to view source code, statements, and other information regarding the data source.

- View the source code of tuning candidates
- View statement or case code in SQL Viewer
- Open an explain plan for a statement or case
 Executing a session from the command line
- Saving a tuning job

IDERA | Products | Purchase | Support | Community | Resources | About Us | Legal