

Configuring tuning

This section contains information on configuring tuning. It provides information on setting up your data sources to work with tuning functionality, as well as information regarding preferences within the application for the customization of various features and functionality.

This section is comprised of the following topics:

- Set roles and permissions on data sources
- Specify Tuning Job Editor preference
- Specify Case Generation preferences
- Specify VST Diagrams Tuning preference