Updates and support

We update our products periodically but will only notify our customers via email when we publish an update that contains a critical fix or that is considered a major upgrade. Therefore, to ensure that you are always running the latest version of our products, we recommend that you check our site, www.idera.com, regularly for product updates.

IDERA | Products | Purchase | Support | Community | Resources | About Us | Legal